

“Professional, flexible, humorous and occasional sheer bloody-mindedness made it work fantastically”

Statement of Purpose:

Passionately get to the heart of matters, delivering real, lasting change.

About me:

I am a confident, focused and challenging coach, consultant and facilitator. I provide a balance of empathy and understanding with high task focus and a desire for change.

My background in line management and consultancy allows me to blend both organisational sensitivity and an understanding of people, to help individuals perform and develop within the environment in which they work. It's about you, not me. I like to listen, understand, challenge, provide feedback, humour and perspective, and see how change can bring you benefits.

Integrity is key to me in life and in business: I believe in trust and honesty and place a high value on the importance of confidentiality in the coaching relationship.

Mark Burch, Deputy Director, Department of Communities and Local Government - Jane brought a rare level of professionalism to our team that was both strategic in its approach and set high standards of delivery, which we have been able to use as the benchmark for our own people. Her way of working was extremely collegiate and the value she brought through mentoring the colleagues was a bonus.
